Justin Weber

Justin Weber's passions of pickin' and preachin' are evident in his business, The Pickin' Preacher. His love of preserving the past through collecting antiques, vintage and re-purposing items began in April 2017.

The Pickin' Preacher offers vintage signage, antique furniture, mid-century furniture, railroad items, antique truck and auto parts, doors, windows, agricultural items, decorative cast iron and steel pieces, re-purposed items, rare and unique pieces. The Pickin' Preacher has a strong presence on FaceBook. It's fun to follow him to see what treasures he will find next.

The store is open Fridays 1-6pm and Saturdays 9am-5pm. His shop/warehouse is located in Eldora on Edgington Avenue, across the street from Pizza Ranch.

Love Where You Live - Together with the Pickin' Preacher!

Helping people and connecting them with memories through items from the past is what Justin really enjoys. He also stores treasures in heaven serving as the pastor at New Providence Honey Creek Church for 11 years ongoing.

Justin has worked with HCSB staff Charlette DeNeui, John Pratt, Jim Brown, Tom Volding and Dianne Haywood saying, "The bank has assisted with creative financing, business advice and providing me with adequate business insurance."
